vs.)

Case No. 3:22-CR-30051-DWD

PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE 32.2 WITH RESPECT TO A CERTAIN FIREARM AND OR AMMUNITION OF CHARLES E. BRADFORD

In the Indictment filed in the above cause on May 17, 2022, the United States sought forfeiture of property of defendant, Charles E. Bradford, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(d). Bradford pleaded guilty on August 18, 2022, and upon consideration of that guilty plea, the Court FINDS forfeitable and ORDERS forfeited the following property:

A Ruger 9mm semi-automatic pistol bearing serial number: 860-36349, and any and all ammunition contained therein.

The United States shall provide notice of the forfeiture and the right of persons, other than Defendant, who have any claim or legal interest in any of the property, to file a petition with the Court. The notice shall be provided in a manner consistent with Supplemental Rule G(4)(a) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions.

The notice shall state that the petition shall be set for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the property, shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

The United States shall, also to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in the property that is the subject of the Order of Forfeiture, as the substitute for the published notice to those persons so notified.

Upon the filing of a petition alleging the third-party interests in the property, the court may amend this order to resolve the claimed third-party interests.

The United States Marshals shall seize and reduce to his possession, if he has not already done so, the above-described property.

This Order, pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, shall become final with respect to Defendant, Charles E. Bradford, at the time of Defendant's sentencing, regardless of whether or not the rights of actual or potential third-party petitioners have been determined by that time. This Order shall be made part of the sentence of Defendant, Charles E. Bradford, and shall be included in the Judgment imposed against Defendant. Although this Order is a final order with respect to Defendant at the time of sentencing, it may be amended with respect to petitions filed by third parties claiming an interest in the subject-matter forfeited property.

The United States may abandon forfeiture of the property by filing notice of the abandonment with the Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: August 24, 2022
